Miss Marion Taylor Among Brides-to-Be

The engagement of Miss Marion Taylor to Mr. Langhorne Gibson is of interest in Washington. Miss Taylor's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Moses Taylor of New York, announced the engagement yesterday. Mr. Gibson is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dana Gibson, the latter formerly Miss Irene Langhorne of Virginia, and is a nephew of Lady Astor and a brother of Mrs. George B. Post, formerly Miss Irene Langhorne Gibson. Mr. Gibson was captain of this year's Yale crew.

Miss Taylor is a granddaughter of the late Mr. Henry A. C. Taylor and made her debut last season. She spent the late winter and spring in Europe and Egypt with her parents, who will go to Newport in August and will be accompanied by Miss Taylor.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin H. Day announce the engagement of their daughter, Helen Marie, to Mr. Walker S. Clute, son of Mr. J. M. Clute of Los Angeles, Calif.

Weddings

Her bridesmaid was Miss Clara Maier, sister of the bridegroom, and Mr. B. Bear was best man. After a wedding reception, Mr. and Mrs. Maier left for a trip and on their return will make their home in this city.

St. Patrick's Church was the scene of the wedding Wednesday, July 21, of Miss Elsie Rose Smoot, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Smoot, and Mr. Walter H. Walker, the bride's sister. Miss Clara Smoot was maid of honor, and her brother, Mr. John T. Smoot, Jr., was best man. Mr. Robert Smith and Mr. John Galtner were ushers. The parents of the bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Walker, and his sister, Miss Alice Walker, from Jacksonville, Fla., were present; also Mrs. Nettie Sheets, from Philadelphia, and Mrs. Margaret Stead, from Baltimore. Mr. and Mrs. Walker are spending their honeymoon at West Palm Beach and Jacksonville, Fla.

The marriage in Baltimore of Miss Frances Elliott to Constance Sullivan and Mr. Arthur Hoot Staley Magruder is of interest in Washington, where the bride has a large circle of friends. The ceremony was performed in St. Michael and All Angels' Protestant Episcopal Church at 10 o'clock Saturday afternoon, June 24, by the rector, the Rev. Dr. Wyatt Brown. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white chiffon draped over satin, with a picture hat of white satin trimmed with a white ostrich feather, and carried white roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Mary Louise Turner of Washington, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor, and wore yellow chiffon, with a leghorn hat trimmed in yellow, and carried sweet peas. Mr. C. C. Magruder, Jr., was best man for his brother and the ushers were Mr. John Conter Sullivan, brother of the bride; Mr. Hampton Magruder, brother of the bridegroom; Mr. Clarence Hall, Mr. Nick Hall, Mr. Bowie Addison and Mr. Wall.

The ceremony was followed by a reception in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Albert Sullivan, on Reservoir street, after which Mr. and Mrs. Magruder left for a wedding trip, at the conclusion of which they will make their home in Baltimore.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Leigh Richmond Keesh, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Turner, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Plummer, Mr. Charles Markell, Mr. Richmond Bolling, Mr. Henry Snowden Turner, Miss Helen Marie Markell, Miss Helen Plummer, and Miss Adele Markell, all of Washington; Mr. and Mrs. Henry B. Conter of Annapolis, Md.; Mrs. Hampton Magruder of Marlboro, Md.; Mr. Thomas Magruder, Mrs. Mabel G. Conter and Mr. Gordon Fairfax Conter.

The wedding of Miss Grace Fitzhugh Harrison of Fredericksburg, Va., and Mr. William Sheppard Miller of Urbana, Va., Saturday afternoon, June 24, in Trinity Episcopal Church, the former city, was an exceedingly brilliant affair. The Rev. John F. W. Fields performed the ceremony, the bride party having as a background about the ferns, palms and baskets of vari-colored flowers. A program of nuptial music was rendered by Mrs. I. B. Williams.

The bride, who was given away by her father, Mr. James Gardner Harrison, wore a handsome gown of embroidered white Canton crepe and a hat to match and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Pauline Harrison, sister of the bride, attended her as maid of honor and wore apricot-color georgette over satin, with a hat in the same shade, and carried a shower bouquet of pink roses. The bridesmaids were Miss Elizabeth Harrison, youngest sister of the bride, who wore green georgette over satin, with a hat in the same tone, and carried La France roses, and Miss Jeannette Chiles, who wore orchid georgette, with a hat to match and a cluster of Ophelia roses. Mr. Robert Miller of Urbana, Va., brother of the bridegroom, was best man, and the ushers were Mr. John Corey of Norfolk, Mr. Conway Walker and Mr. Fred Walker of Washington, and Mr. Vivian Layton of Fredericksburg, Va. A reception followed the ceremony, the guests being entertained at the home of the bride's parents.

When later Mr. and Mrs. Miller left for their wedding trip the bride wore a blue tailor suit with a hat and a tan hat. On their return they will make their home in Baltimore, Md.

Miss Esther Buckley, the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Buckley of Clifton, Va., was married to Mr. John Milton Twigg of Cumberland, Md., at the residence of Dr. Wallace Radcliffe, in this city, Thursday, June 23, at 4 o'clock. Only members of the immediate family were present. The bride was becomingly dressed in a gown of white crepe de chine, with orchid and white Spanish lace, and wore a picture hat of white crepe de chine. She carried orchids and lilies of the valley.

After the ceremony a luncheon was served the bride party at the New Ebbitt. Mr. and Mrs. Twigg will be at home after July 12, at their apartment in Cumberland, Md.

The Chapel of Our Lady, Gonzaga College, was the scene of a pretty and impressive ceremony Wednesday morning, when Miss Margaret Poole became the bride of Mr. Lester L. Kendig. The ceremony was performed by Rev. William J. Brooks of St. Aloysius Church. For the music Prof. Harry Wheaton Howard was at the organ, while Miss Hazel Arthur rendered several beautiful vocal selections. The bride was becomingly dressed in a gown of white Canton crepe, with white picture hat, and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Ethel Eddy, maid of honor, wore a charming gown of pink georgette crepe with ribbons of French blue, and a picture hat of the same shade. Her bouquet was of pink roses and larkspur. Mr. Edward Ready was Mr. Kendig's best man, and the ushers were Mr. John B. Hickey and Mr. E. Eugene Byrne. Following the ceremony an informal reception was held at the home of the bride, at which only the members of the wedding party and the immediate families of the bride and bridegroom were present. Mr. Kendig and his bride left late in the afternoon for a wedding trip to New York and Boston, the latter traveling in a modern gown of midnight blue crepe with a cape of blue cloth and a hat to match.
